Dear Facebook:

I am very interested in positioning Strategic Partner Manager, Community Partnerships in Facebook and i am seeking for a vibrant company that appreciate professionalism and experience set forth on my attach resume.

I am an energetic leader with strong networking abilities who is very familiar with the IT field and how it can best serve clients.

My background in Expansions, sales, custommer relation specialist, account management, data processing, negotiation, and successful decision making match with the job requirements in the job posting and can lead to a win-win situation for the company.

During this past 2 years-

I inisiate marketing campaigns, demonstrate the product via web, virtual call, text, in person, created the presentations, and developed a wide and deep expertise of industry trends.

I monitor all the sales and partnership flow, analyze the potential partners on the market and determined ways to increase the company efficiency.

My active involvement in deciding direction of sales efforts and execution of plans boosted company revenues and strengthened our brand positioning in market.

As i mentioned above, my networking skills enabled me to produce strong, enduring relationships with clients and key partners, advancing our firm's standing.

I would like to share my business strategies and planning through brain storming with the company team for our mutual profit.

Please be in contact with me regarding the timing of an in-person interview via my cell phone +6281234071113 or email, venamamarodia@gmail.com.

Thanking you for your time, I remain,

Sincerely yours,

Trivena Mamarodia
